

INSURANCE PRODUCER PRE-LICENSING COURSE PROVIDER LIST
(Requirement for Rhode Island Residents)

The following pre-licensing course providers have been approved by the Department of Business Regulation (“Department”) to offer pre-licensing courses for insurance producers. These pre-licensing courses are a prerequisite for all Rhode Island residents applying for an Insurance Producer license. You must contact the providers directly for information relating to any pre-licensing course. The appropriate pre-licensing course(s) must be completed prior to application and examination, as the Department will not issue an Insurance Producer license until this requirement has been satisfied.
